To Dyspeptics.

stomach, nanses, fatnlency, water-brach, heart-burn, vemitting, loss of appetite, and constipation. Dyspeptic patients suffer untold miseries, bodily and mental. They should stimulate the digestion, and secure regular daily setion of the bowels, by the tise of moderate doses of Ayer's Pills.

After the bowels are regulated, one of these Pills, taken each day after dinner, is usually all that is required to complete the cure.

AVER'S DILLS are sugar-coated and purely regetable - a pleasant, entirely safe, and reliable medicine for the cure of all disorders of the stomach and bowels. They are the best of all purgetives for family nos. PREPARED BY

Are. Smith's Case, and what the Rev. Mr. McKinstry has to any about it.

To the Public: I have been a fearful suffere for fifteen years, most of the time with what haben called florent or felt filtered, Provincia and Loya, and the like, and have level been to did that there was no cure for me, and have been so discouraged that I had as soon dis as like. I have been so body suffered assentines that there was no me smallest apot from the crown of my head to the oles of my feet that was not discouraged that I had as soon discouraged that I had as soon discouraged that I had a site of the crown of my head to the close of my feet that was not discouraged that I would commence in small white apote which had a sittery approxime, but were not deep out if I attempted to heal them, or soon after the first appearance, they would bern and run togethe until there was a complete dry, red scale, which would become so inflamed as to cruck and look firmed any and any could be almost intelerable.

I was at times so lame that I could scarcely guitout, and could not dress my-elf without assistance. I have tried many remedies, and have guited to in a ningle instead to a physician but have ever chitathed only tomporn y releasing the state of 1801 and 1882 I suffered as much as a tenting discouraged.
